

LCC Library celebrates
National Library Week
April 15-21, 2007 w/ Daily Drawings and More!

National Library Week - a time to celebrate the contributions of libraries, librarians and library workers in schools, campuses and communities nationwide - and the perfect time for the LCC community to come together @ your library.

The Lenoir Community College Library is celebrating National Library Week by forgiving fines for students on overdue books returned between April 15-21, no matter how long overdue. Other events include a candy give away with checkout or return of library materials, free bookmarks, and a daily drawing.

The library staff is sponsoring a daily drawing of a $20.00 gift certificate to The Book Depot at Vernon Park Mall in Kinston. Students, staff, and faculty are welcome to participate. An individual can enter only once each day for the $20.00 gift certificate by visiting the Library and filling out an entry form.

If you have overdue books, tapes, or other materials hidden under your bed or behind a shelf, find it and return the materials to the LCC Library circulation desk. Your fines will be forgiven in celebration of National Library Week!

So stop by the Lenoir Community College Library, say thank you to one of our many wonderful library workers, and celebrate!

CONGRATULATIONS TO DR. CECILIA BIANCHI-HALL
