

SACSCOC LOGO DESIGN COMPETITION

www.sacscoc.org

The Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) is pleased to announce a logo design competition for students, faculty, staff, alumni, and retirees of member institutions.

Due to the recent separate incorporation of the Commission from the Association, a new logo is needed apart from the SACS seal. The winning logo will become the property of SACSCOC and will be presented at the Annual Meeting in December 2010. The new logo will be phased in and will completely replace the current logo that appears on Web pages, stationery, business cards, and official publications of the organization.

Prizes for the competition include:

| Second prize: | $300.00 |
